WICKED TINKERS, THE MAD MEN OF CELTIC MUSIC, ON THE FORD'S FAMILY SERIES JULY 24 AT 10:00 A.M.

Jigs, reels and marches transport you to the Scotland and Ireland of long ago

Children admitted FREE to one-hour programs for families.

The Wicked Tinkers fill the Ford Amphitheatre with the sounds of heart-pounding bagpipes, irresistible tribal drums and the unusual Bronze-Age Irish Horn at the Big!World!Fun! family show at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, July 24. The “madmen of Celtic music” tell the audience about their instruments, clothing and the music they play. The audience gets to participate in the group’s black bear song, including yelling like a black bear.

Pre-show kid-friendly activities begin at 9:00 a.m. with storytelling with Nailah Malik.

The hour-long Big!World!Fun! performances in the shaded outdoor amphitheatre are designed for the enjoyment of children ages 4 to 10, parents and grandparents. The series is presented by the Ford Theatre Foundation. Booklists related to each series event, provided by the Los Angeles County Library, are available at www.FordTheatres.org; click on “Family” under “Events” on the homepage, then click on “More Info” for the event that interests you.

Admission to all events is FREE for children and $5 for adults. Parking is $1 per vehicle. To reserve/purchase tickets, call the Ford box office at 323 461-3673 or visit www.FordTheatres.org.

The Wicked Tinkers started in 1995 when bagpiper Aaron Shaw met bass drum player Warren Casey at The Celtic Arts Center in Los Angeles, CA. Playing together, they discovered the simple beauty and power of the music created by these two instruments. “The combination seemed to tap the very soul of Gaelic music,” says Shaw.

Over the years, the band has evolved. Keith Jones joined in on snare drum and hand percussion in 2000, followed by CJ Henderson on the Australian didgeridoo and the recently discovered Bronze-Age Irish Horn — a sound that was lost for over three thousand years. This strange and unlikely combination of instruments accesses a primal place that is both ancient and hauntingly familiar. It is the music of the Scotland and Ireland of long ago, re-imagined for the twenty-first century.

Big!World!Fun! continues with Viver Brasil sharing dance, music and myths of Afro-Brazilian culture (July 31); Latin American harpist-storyteller Alfredo Rolando Ortiz tracing his musical odyssey (August 7); dance and music of the Philippines from Kayamanan Ng Lahi (August 14); Boxtales Theatre Company's production of the Indian fable "Prince Rama and the Monkey King" (August 21); and an opportunity to sing along with LA Opera's artists in "Sing Out Loud!" (August 28).

The Big!World!Fun! Family Series is sponsored by Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky, Kenneth T. and Eileen L. Norris Foundation, City of Los Angeles 4th District Councilmember Tom LaBonge, Sony Pictures Entertainment and ABC7. The Autry National Center and The Los Angeles County Library are series partners.
